

Jesus Said...

"I am come that they might have life... more abundantly."

Every one of us admires an energetic and enthusiastic person. We may not always feel enthusiastic ourselves, but we must appreciate those who are. We may wonder, as we meet people, what makes some seem so happy and others seem so sad. We may think of the enthusiastic person as the one who is "living life to the full." Jesus wants us to live this way, too.

Jesus said, "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundant-ly" (John 10:10). As Christians, we are expected to live life to the full. The Bible repeatedly tells us to be happy about the Christian life. Being a Christian is the most exciting thing a person can be. To realize what we have and what we are as Christians excites us to the highest degree of joy mankind can know.

We often think we are thrilled with our earthly affairs: winning a prize, the birth of a baby, new friends, our wedding, etc. But the Christian life is truly the biggest thrill of all. This feeling comes from having Jesus as Lord of our life, having our Jesus is good to us. We have sinned, but Jesus died on the cross for our sins. "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life" (John 3:16).

Jesus said, "Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out" (John 6:37). Jesus wants us to give everyone His abundant life. But this is reserved for only the people who accept Him as their Shepherd, Saviour and Lord. If you are not a Christian and would like to be, read the third chapter of John. Accept Jesus Christ as your personal Saviour and the Lord of your life. Pray that God will forgive your sins. Ask God to send the Holy Spirit into your life so that you, too, will experience that abundant life which Jesus said He came to give.
